A: Answer Well, I went ahead and purchased the iRobot Roomba i7+, so I can answer my own question. The fringe on this really big heavy rug under my dining table was not a problem! It did have to backup and approach corners on my rugs from different angles, but did not tangle. The only change I am making so far is to install strip cord protecters over the small cords that run under my sofas ...

They work with the eyelids to keep dirt and other unwanted stuff out of your eyes. The white part of the eyeball is called the sclera (say: SKLAIR-uh). The sclera is made of a tough material and has the important job of covering most of the eyeball. Think of the sclera as your eyeball's outer coat. Look very closely at the white of the eye, and you'll see lines that look like tiny pink threads ...
